

Beaudesert Showgirl

Guidelines

The aim of the Showgirl Awards is to broaden the knowledge and participation of our youth in the show movement. Entrants are provided with networking opportunities and the winner will hold their title for a year as well as being an ambassador for our show at the South Eastern sub-chamber judging. Married women, as well as women with children, can now enter the Showgirl Awards after a rule change was accepted by the board of Queensland Ag Shows.

The Showgirl Awards across Queensland is not only for rural women – it seeks the support from 129 Show Societies in both regional and metropolitan areas. 11 State Finalists are selected from hundreds of entrants across the state. They are first selected as their local Showgirl followed by their sub-chamber finals to compete at the State Final held at the Brisbane Royal Show (Ekka).

The Beaudesert Showgirl winner is selected for their knowledge, presentation, passion for their community and local show. The competition is not a beauty contest, nor is it an “intelligence” test: it is for young Queensland women to raise the profile of Queensland Shows ambassadors. The awards provide an opportunity to excel in leadership, community involvement and build confidence.

What happens next?

The journey and experience of being The Beaudesert Showgirl doesn't stop there. After our show you will be invited to attend the QCAS South East QLD Sub-Chamber finals, which is generally held in March the following year. From here the winner will join the other State Finalists (11 in total) to attend the State Final which is held at the Brisbane Royal Show (EKKA). The winner from this event is then invited to attend the National Showgirl competition held at the Sydney Royal Easter Show.

The winners of the award will be expected to attend the 2023 Beaudesert Show, set down for Friday & Saturday, 8-9 September, and participate in the formal and informal procedures over the two days, alongside the Junior Show Ambassador and the Rural Ambassador.
